Dear Mr. Wilson:

As you remember from our conversation several months ago we anticipated you visiting the Library in June. At the present time there are no major conflicts in my schedule that would interfere with our meeting.

I plan to be in Washington next week visiting Dr. Pogue and working in the National Archives. In the meantime, if a trip to Lexington is still agreeable, perhaps you can check your schedule and I can confirm a date on the telephone Tuesday or Wednesday.

Lynn Biribauer of the Library staff has been working with the Friedman collection and enclosed are copies of the descriptive material she has prepared for your information. I feel the number of copies we have available for purchase should not be advertised at this time.

I am looking forward to your visit and advice concerning the Friedman collection, and you will be hearing from me next week concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

Anthony R. Crawford
Assistant Archivist
